

Anchored on the banks of the Seine, in the heart of the historic city of Rouen. Completely redesigned and rebuilt within the historic walls of the Palais des Consuls, a building dating back to 1954 and classified as a protected monument, our hotel offers a modern and daring design, preserving the original architecture while integrating decorative elements inspired by Art Deco and Kinetic Art from the 1950s. A stone's throw away, the majestic Notre-Dame Cathedral, dating back to the 11th century, towers over its medieval quarter and represents a masterpiece in the transition from Romanesque to Gothic art. Claude Monet, a neighbor of Rouen from his garden in Giverny, immortalized this cathedral in a series of 30 famous paintings, showcasing the light and beauty of the Normandy region.
